

MTSU Writing & Poetry Workshops

MTSU's Division of Continuing Studies and Public Service is excited to announce a variety of creative writing workshops that cover everything from the craft of poetry and starting a novel to screenwriting and self-publishing. In addition to the creative side of writing, our workshops venture into the commercial, into the business of writing, as well. For additional information, please visit these workshops on the Web or call Roy Burkhead at 615-898-5033, and you can register via phone at 615-898-2462.

NOTICE: You DO NOT need to be a part of The Writer's Loft to sign up for and attend these workshops! They are open to the general public.

On the Web:

www.mtsu.edu/~learn/noncredit/theloftworkshops.htm

FALL 2003 CREATIVE WRITING WORKSHOPS

- Common Errors of the Novice Writer: October 18, 2003
- Enjoying the Puzzle: Writing Poetry: November 15, 2003
- Critical Reading to Learn Writing Skills: November 22
- A Guide to Self-Publication: December 4, 2003
- Screenwriting for the Movies: December 4, 2003
- Creating Your Novel: December 5, 2003
- Short Story and Novel Feedback: December 5, 2003
- How to Sell Your Novel: December 6, 2003